

CENTRAL COAST ECONOMIC FORECAST

SPONSOR POLICY REGARDING HANDLING PROPRIETARY ECONOMIC FORECAST MATERIAL

Thank you for your sponsorship of the Central Coast Economic Forecast!

As part of your sponsorship benefits, you will have access to proprietary economic information prepared by our contract partner, Beacon Economics. In addition to the annual and mid-year Central Coast Economic Forecast Events, Beacon Economics produces periodic Regional Intelligence Reports. The reports and other proprietary material ("Proprietary Material") produced by our contract partners related to the events are made available to certain sponsors through password protected website access.

Central Coast Economics Forecast is pleased to share the Proprietary Material with its sponsors, however, the Propriety Material is for review by sponsors only, and must be kept confidential. Therefore, sponsors are not allowed to share their access passwords with others, or to make copies, share, or distribute any of the Proprietary Material to others.

Central Coast Economic Forecast invests significant time and money in the Proprietary Material, and the material must be kept confidential to retain its value.

Thank you for your understanding and adherence to this policy.
